ABOUT MUSIC

The University of Arkansas is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music and the Department of Music is housed within the Fulbright College of Arts & Sciences.

Home to over 300 music students and fifty faculty members, we offer a variety of degree programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Department faculty and students perform over 400 concerts per year, on and off campus. Large concerts are performed at the 600-seat Faulkner Performing Arts Center that opened in 2015. Chamber and solo recitals are primarily presented at the 200-seat Stella Boyle Smith Concert Hall, which began a full renovation December 2022 and should reopen in spring 2025.

For more information, find us on social media or contact us at (479) 575-4701, email us at music@uark.edu, or visit music.uark.edu.

PERSONNEL

Arkansas Brassworks is the faculty brass quintet of the University of Arkansas. The group was formed in the fall of 2003 to serve as a performing outlet for the faculty and as a model for student groups.

Brassworks performs each semester at the University of Arkansas. Additionally, the quintet performs concerts and master classes throughout the region. Concert programs include repertoire from Renaissance brass to contemporary brass quintet compositions.
